4th April, 2021
Easter Sunday.

Hi all,

I hope you are all keeping well. This is our second year celebrating all the Easter Ceremonies online. It will be a change hopefully next year to be celebrating them back in our churches! I am grateful that with the help of Facebook that we can do these things. It does present a challenge and I try to put myself in your position, the viewer, and I can only hope that what I do is to your satisfaction.

I want to thank you for continuing to support me and the parish through your moral support and your financial support. Bills still have to be paid and despite the fact that we are not using them very much, our churches have to be maintained as we look forward to opening them up soon hopefully. If you are having any difficulty in contributing to the parish financially, contact myself or Eileen and we will help you. You can do so through the envelope collection, by direct debit or through the Donate button on our parish website (www.kilmichael.org).

I'm taking a small break this coming week from the online Masses until next Sunday, 11th April. No I won't be going anywhere and will be available for emergencies and funerals.

Happy Easter to you all and best wishes
Pat.

NO Mass on Facebook Live on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Mass will be back on Facebook Live on Sunday 11th April at 10 am.

First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: "You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.' Response

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. Response

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,

a marvel in our eyes. Response

Second Reading

A Reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Colossians.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed;
let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.
