18th April, 2021
Third Sunday of Easter.

Hi all,

I hope you are all keeping well. Great to hear after a long run since Christmas that the Covid-19 numbers continue to fall, long may that continue. Sincere thanks to all who have continued to support the parish and myself during these times. Eileen and myself are available to help you with this if you need to contact us.

People have also been asking about the Trócaire Boxes and Envelopes. I think it would better to hold off with them until the churches open.

I am sometimes asked about putting bins in Terelton Cemetery. It is best that you remove and take home all old wreaths etc. for disposal.

Regards to all.

Pat.

First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate, after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses.

'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.'

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.

1. When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me! Response

2. It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves;
the Lord hears me whenever I call him. Response

3. 'What can bring us happiness?' many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord. Response

4. I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once, for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety. Response

Second Reading

A Reading from the first letter of St. John.

I am writing this, my children,
to stop you sinning;
but if anyone should sin,
we have our advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, who is just;
he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away, and not only ours,
but the whole world's.

We can be sure that we know God only by keeping his commandments. Anyone who says, 'I know him', and does not keep his commandments,
is a liar,
refusing to admit the truth.
But when anyone does obey what he has said,
God's love comes to perfection in him.
The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, Explain the scriptures to us.

Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us

Alleluia!

Gospel

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, 'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they could not believe it, and they stood dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes. Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'
