23rd May, 2021
Pentecost Sunday.

Hi all,
It's great to be back. It was wonderful to see so many familiar faces again. Sadly since we were last together we've lost a few of our Eucharistic Community. May they now rest in peace.

Saturday Evening Mass: Following a very good attendance, I've decided to try out an extra Mass on Saturday evening at 7 pm in Johnstown church to try and facilitate people. This is on a temporary basis to accommodate numbers until we get back to near full attendance being allowed come to Mass in our churches.

Cooldorrihy Church: I have done a bit of work to Cooldorrihy church and I now feel the time has come to ask for help to clean Cooldorrihy Church on say a once monthly rota. With this in mind, I'm asking for volunteers to help. If you're interested give your name to myself or Eileen.

Johnstown Church: A new boiler has been installed in Johnstown church recently. This will do in half an hour what the old one was doing in 2½ hours.

Trócaire Boxes/Envelopes You can drop them in to us at Mass times and we will send on the funds to Trócaire.

Finally, I want to express sincere thanks to you all for your continued support to the parish both financially and morally. I'm glad to say that we've wanted for nothing. It gives me great pleasure to be part of your lives.

Regards and blessings,
Pat.

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When Pentecost day came round, they had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The word of the Lord.

Response to the Psalm

Send forth your spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

1.

Bless the Lord, my soul!

Response

Lord God, how great you are!

How many are your works, O Lord!

The earth is full of your riches.

Response

2.

You take back your spirit, they die,

Returning to the dust from which they came.

You send forth your spirit, they are created;

and you renew the face of the earth. Response

3

May the glory of the Lord last forever!

May the Lord rejoice in his works!

May my thoughts be pleasing to him.

I find joy in the Lord.

Response

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go, make disciples of all the nations;

I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the Advocate comes,

whom I shall send to you from the Father,

the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father,

he will be my witness.

And you too will be witnesses,

because you have been with me from the outset.

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes

he will lead you to the complete truth,

since he will not be speaking as from himself

but will say only what he has learnt;

and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me,

since all he tells you

will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;

that is why I said:

All he tells you

will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
