Are you a Family Carer of an older person in Cork & Kerry? If so, Family Carers Ireland who are working in partnership with the HSE, & with funding from ReThink Ireland, are offering Family Carers of older people, access to a new initiative to support Family Carers. By engaging with The Family Carer Support Project, you will work with the Carer Wellbeing Manager, Lynne Dennehy, to enhance your wellbeing. We will work with you to find out what your needs are, and we will develop an action plan to support you to meet them. No question or problem is too big or too small. For more information about the project: E-mail: fcsp@familycarers.ie Phone on: Amy 086 0759063. Visit: <https://www.familycarers.ie/fcsp>

If you would like to include an item in the Parish Newsletter, please email details to news@kilmichael.org or hand in writing to Parochial House.

8th August, 2021

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,
I hope you are all keeping well. I have to say that it's been a very sad week with the news of the tragic accident in Monkstown and the untimely passing of Fr. Con Cronin and the bus driver Mark Wills of Ballincollig. Our thoughts and prayers are with their families. Fr. Con replaced me in Passage West and Monkstown nine years ago this weekend when I was appointed to Kilmichael. An encounter with Fr. Con was always a very memorable one. He was full of life and did every thing he could for everyone. He was a character who enjoyed life and was always full of fun. He loved to bring out the best in people and will be remembered fondly by the people of The Harbour Parishes and with whom he ministered with Fr. John Galvin (retired) and Fr. Seán O'Sullivan PP. I last met him on a visit to Passage West in March of this year. It was a most memorable hour and a half. May his colourful soul rest in peace. We pray too for Mark Wills and we remember his young family and all who loved him. May he now rest in peace. I also send sympathies to the Hurley families of Bandon and Enniskeane on the passing of Fr. Gus Hurley of the Arch Dioceses of Glasgow who passed away while on a visit home to visit family and friends. May he rest in peace.
Fr. Tony O'Riordan of Cooldorrihy is home at the moment and will be covering some of the Masses this weekend and next weekend. I will take a break from Masses this coming week. Fr. Tony will take any emergency calls.
Next weekend is the 14th/15th August, Feast of the Assumption. Weather permitting Mass will be celebrated at Cooldorrihy Grotto on Saturday evening (14th Aug) at 8.15 pm in lieu of the normal 8.15 pm Mass in Cooldorrihy church. I plan to broadcast this Mass live on our Facebook page. Best wishes to Jerry Masters and all who are taking part in the Tour De Munster this week.
Regards and blessings to all.
Pat.
