29th August, 2021

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,

I hope you are all keeping well. When we see the schools going back it's a sign that the holidays are over and it's back to more serious stuff.

Over the years I have tried to do some open air Masses and there is one place I haven't done yet and that is the 'Old Church in Kilnadur' I might try and get that done in September. I'm open to ideas and weather permitting!!

First Friday calls as usual on Friday next. I set the odometer counter in the car to see how many kilometres I cover. Last month to cover all calls, 105.5 km!! Calls were covered from Johnstown, Carrigangan, Carrigboy, Gurranreigh, Cooldaniel, Ardnaneen, Castlevew and Aultagh, I enjoy doing these calls, great to catch up with those that don't get out very much now.

Regards and blessings.

Pat.
