5th September, 2021
Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,

The good news continues to come regarding the easing of restrictions around coronavirus. Our churches are now allowed up to 50% capacity. From now on while still subject to the wearing of masks and social distancing and sanitisation, I make a point as much as I can to wash my hands before Mass and before I give out Communion and after Communion.

Funerals are now at the same capacity as Mass, that is upto 50%.

I would like to see Ministers of the Eucharist and Ministers of the Word starting to come on board and getting active again. Altar servers are as always welcome to participate and give me some help too.

On Saturday next, 11th September, weather permitting, instead of the 7.30 pm Vigil Mass in Johnstown church we will celebrate Mass at the old Church in Kilnadur at 6 pm.

I take this opportunity to welcome and congratulate Ms. Julie Murray into her new role as Principal of Dromleigh NS and wish her well in the future.

Hopefully First Confessions and First Communion will take place over the months of September and October.

Finally, for those of us that are ABBA fans, it's great to see some new music coming from them soon after 40 years!!!

Regards and blessings.

Pat.
