St. Michael's Well, Cooldaniel

Wednesday 29th September is the feast of St. Michael (Michaelmas). This feast day was traditionally celebrated in the parish of Kilmichael. People took the day off and marked the occasion by performing rounds at St. Michael's Well, Cooldaniel and the old cemetery at Moneycusker. This was followed by an evening of celebrations at the Fair Field opposite St. Michael's Well at Cooldorrihy and adjacent to what was then a substantial village at Cooldorrihy Cross. Although all those traditions have died out, Kilmichael Historical Society likes to mark the day by reciting prayers at St. Michael's Well, Cooldaniel. This is scheduled for 6.30pm on Wednesday 29th September. All are welcome.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,

As most of you know, Cooldorrihy Church and perimeter walls have been painted. The cost came in on quote at €3,700 and Carbery Spray Painters have been paid for an excellent job. I would hope to get the inside of this church painted in early Spring. Hopefully, funds in our bank account will allow us to do this badly needed work.

I want to express my thanks to all who continue to support the parish through the regular Offertory Collection and regular bank transfers to our account. You can also donate to the parish and myself by using the DONATE button on our website - www.kilmichael.org

The Mass attending people have been very generous to the parish and to me and I appreciate all the support, it is a pleasure to live amongst you.

Our Facebook Community have been very generous and supportive to our parish and it's one of the pleasures of celebrating Mass in this way. Covid-19 has opened us up to a whole new audience who are now part of our community. Next Saturday, 2nd October the children of our parish will celebrate their First Holy Communion and will do so at 10.30 am in Cooldorrihy for Dromleigh NS and at 12 noon in Toames for Tirelton NS.

Gougane Sunday will be celebrated on this Sunday, 26th September, see announcement on back page of newsletter.

Kindest regards and blessings.
Pat.
