31st October, 2021

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,
Looks like October is gone and officially into Winter. Very shortly the cattle will be disappearing off our fields for their winter homes. A time for putting out the Bird Feeders again as the countryside takes on a bare look with the leaves falling off the trees.

Novena Time

Our Novena of Masses for our dearly departed begins on Monday with the Feast of All Saints. See programme attached. On Friday, First Friday, we will remember all those who died from our parish and beyond over the last year. Please pass on us any names of those you would like to include in the Mass on Friday night, 5th November at 8 pm in Toames. This will be broadcast on Facebook Live.

Thanks to all who contributed so generously to the Dues collection which is for the support of myself, you always give so generously and I appreciate your kindness to me. You can continue to give to me or the parish through our usual Offertory Collection and the Parish Envelopes or our 'Donate' facility on our parish website.

First Friday

Friday next, 5th November is First Friday when I will call to those who are housebound and cannot get out to receive the Eucharist, the Body of Christ. I will call at the usual times, I try to get most of them done before midday to about 12.30.

Regards and blessings.
Pat.
