30th January 2022
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi all,

I hope everyone is doing ok! Thanks everyone for extending a very warm welcome to Our Bishop, Bishop Fintan Gavin on his visit to our parish last weekend. He gave time to everyone and the only one keeping an eye on the clock was me! Sadly, he has a very difficult job to do in these days of aging priests and sadly no one wants my job! I found him supportive and very warm and appreciative of the work being done in the parish.

As restrictions ease now and Covid figures continue to fall, the time has come to drop the 9 am Mass in Cooldorrihy which began on the 16th of May last. Sunday, 13th February will be its last Sunday unless and hopefully not that Covid figures increases significantly. From next Sunday, I will return to the normal pre-covid way of distribution of Communion and I can ease back a bid on the speed of the Masses!

I would like to see Ministers of the Word back again soon. Macroom St. Vincent de Paul Conference were on to tell me that the total collection from Cooldorrihy and Toames churches was €656.10. Thanks everyone for your generosity.

Friday next is First Friday of February and I will do the calls at the usual time.

There are some lovely photos on Cork and Ross website www.corkandross.org of Bishop Fintan's visit to the parish, thanks to Pat Dromey for all your work on this. Kindest regards and blessings to everyone.

Pat.
