So that all may be heard

It's not every day that the Holy Father asks every Catholic in the world to have a say in the life of the Catholic Church!

During this month of May, the Diocese of Cork and Ross is opening up ways for people to have a say and to listen and have an input into next year's Synod meeting in Rome which is called by Pope Francis.

The easiest way to find out more and to have your say is to go to synod.corkandross.org where an online confidential questionnaire is available to be filled in. (It'll take about 15 minutes.)

It's open until May 24th. All the responses will be collated and added to the feedback from meetings being held across the diocese with randomly selected groups during May.

A summary document will be forwarded from our diocese at the end of May.

So, it's time to have your say at synod.corkandross.org

8th May, 2022 Fourth Sunday of Easter.

Hi all,

I hope you are all keeping well.

Last week in my few words I made a mention of the West Cork Cemetery Survey. A number of cemetery's around West Cork have been surveyed and many have the names and addresses of those buried therein. There is also the West Cork Graveyard Database where all this has been put online. All you need to do is Google West Cork Graveyard Database and follow the simple instructions. For those locally, Kilmichael Old Cemetery at Moneycusker is on this. The best of luck to anyone searching out the place of burial of their dearly departed. It can be quiet interesting. Mass next Friday, 13th May in Johnstown will be at 9.00 am as the electricity will be turned off from 9.30 am.

Best wishes to the children of Tirelton NS who will receive their First Holy Communion at the 11.30 am Mass in Toames this Sunday.

Regards and Blessings.

Pat.
