20th November 2022

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Hi all,

I hope everyone is doing well. Good to see the weather temperatures coming to a more normal level.

Thankfully, it seems Covid-19 is starting to become a distant memory for many. With this in mind, I have decided to go back to passing the baskets around the church for the offertory collections from this weekend onwards as our collection has gone down to under €1,000 per weekend and our level of Mass attendance has not gone back to pre-covid levels. A recent electricity bill from Johnstown church came in at €312.33 for 2 months which is up at least a third on this time last year. The cost of heating has risen also.

I thank you for your generosity and your co-operation on this matter.

Regards and blessings,
Pat.
