26th July 2026.
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Hi All,

This weekend is a significant time in our family of parishes. This weekend, we say goodbye and farewell to Fr. Anthony O'Mahony who will be moving on to take up duties in the Family Parishes of Ardfield, Rathbarry, Barryroe, Clonakilty, Kilmeen, Castleventry, Rosscarrberry and Tiomleague.

On behalf of Frs. Liam, Eoin and myself, I want to wish Anthony all the best in his new appointment as he takes up residence in Barryroe.

I want to thank him for all that he has done throughout his nine years in Uibh Laoire and, when we became part of the Family of Parishes of Drimoleague Dunmanway Kilmichael and Uibh Laoire.

Fr. Anthony has celebrated numerous Masses in our Family of Parishes. He has conducted countless baptisms, weddings and funerals. Everything he has done, he has done with great dedication sincerity and above all in a prayerful and respectful and good-humoured manner. On a personal note, I have found him, most helpful and kind at all times and I know that that is the experience of everyone who has come in contact with Fr. Anthony; Anthony you will be missed by all of us.

As we say goodbye and farewell to Fr. Anthony O'Mahony, we welcome Fr. Anthony Buckley who will be joining us from the Family of Parishes of Bantry, Caheragh, Goleen, Munintir-Bháire and Schull. Fr. Anthony is a native of Toames in Kilmichael Parish. Fr. Anthony has done marvellous work during his time in his present family of parishes. He is well known and well liked by everyone. Frs. Liam, Eoin and myself, and the people of our Family of Parishes are looking forward to welcoming Fr. Anthony into our team and our family of parishes, and working with him. I have no doubt that Fr. Anthony will settle in to getting to know everyone and working with us.

Fr. Pat.
